

Sinclair Broadcasting's actions are frightening. Forcing stations to air such blatantly partisan programming without allowing for equal time for opposing viewpoints is reprehensible.

Seeing Bush succeed in November may be in Sinclair's best interest as is evidenced by recent changes to media ownership rules.

However, their one sided presentation is definitely not serving the public's interests.